MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Adopted: May 23, 2005

Released: May 24, 2005

By the Deputy Chief, Policy Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Order, we address a petition for exemption from Section 79.1 of the Commission's rules,¹ implementing Section 713 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"),² filed by Living Word Bible Church ("Living Word") regarding its television program, "Word For Winners." Telecommunications for the Deaf, Inc. ("TDI"), National Association of the Deaf ("NAD"), The Deaf and Hard of Hearing Consumer Advocacy Network ("DHHCAN"), and Self Help for Hard of Hearing People ("SHHH") filed a consolidated opposition to the petition for exemption.³ For the reasons discussed below, the petition is denied, to the extent stated herein.

2. In Implementation of Section 305 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 – Video Programming Accessibility, the Commission established rules and implementation schedules for the closed captioning of video programming.⁴ In enacting Section 713, Congress recognized that, in certain limited situations, the costs of captioning might impose an undue burden on video programming providers or owners, and it authorized the Commission to adopt appropriate exemptions.⁵ Congress defined "undue burden" to mean "significant difficulty or expense."⁶ When determining if the closed captioning requirements will impose an undue burden, the statute requires the Commission to consider the following factors: (1) the nature and cost of the closed captions for the programming; (2) the impact on the operation of the provider or program owner; (3) the financial resources of the provider or program owner; and (4) the type of operations of the provider or program owner.⁷ A petition for exemption must be supported by sufficient evidence to demonstrate that compliance with the requirements to close caption video programming would cause an undue burden.⁸ Petitioners also are instructed to submit any other information they deem appropriate and relevant to the Commission's final determination.⁹

II. DISCUSSION

3. Living Word submitted a petition for exemption requesting a waiver from compliance with the captioning requirements. It asserts that the program "Word for Winners" is a locally produced and distributed non-news program with no repeat value, pursuant to Section 79.1(d)(8) of the Commission's rules.¹⁰ However, the Commission intended that the exemption for locally produced and distributed non-news programming with limited repeat value be a narrowly focused exemption. It is intended to apply only to a limited class of truly local materials, including, for example, local parades, local high school and other nonprofessional sports, live unscripted local talk shows and community theatre productions.¹¹ Moreover, the Commission concluded that the programming in question would have to be locally created and not networked outside of the local service area or market of a broadcast station.¹² Living Word fails to explain or provide support for its contention that the scope of its program relates only to local issues and that the program is truly local in nature. In addition, because Living Word provides no information on the extent of distribution of its program, it is difficult to determine whether Petitioner's programming reaches beyond its locale. Therefore, because Living Word has failed to provide sufficient information, we are unable to determine whether the Section 79.1(d)(8) exemption applies here.¹³ However, the option of an undue burden exemption still remains available if Petitioner makes the proper showing.

4. Section 79.1(f) requires a petition for exemption from the closed captioning requirements to demonstrate that compliance would cause significant difficulty or expense.¹⁴ Living Word's petition, however, fails to disclose detailed information regarding finances and assets, gross or net proceeds, or sponsorships solicited for assisting in captioning. Living Word provided no documentation from which its financial condition can be assessed. Although Living Word indicates that it is not funded or granted in any way by outside sources, without documentation, it is impossible for the Commission to determine whether Living Word has sufficient justification supporting an exemption from the closed captioning requirements for its television program. Our decision herein is without prejudice to Living Word bringing a future petition for exemption that adequately documents that the Section 79.1(d)(8) exemption is applicable to "Word for Winners" or that compliance with our rules will impose an undue burden. Implicit in the Section 79.1(f) requirement of a showing as to the financial resources of a petitioner, such as Living Word, is the question of the extent to which the distributors of its programming can be called upon to contribute towards the captioning expense. Thus, any subsequent petition should document whether Living Word solicited captioning assistance from the distributors of its programming and the response to these solicitations. Absent such a petition, Petitioner is given 3 months from the release date of this Order to come into complete compliance with the rules.

III. ORDERING CLAUSE

5. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that the petition for exemption from the closed captioning requirements of Section 79.1 of the Commission's rules IS DENIED to the extent indicated herein. Petitioner must comply with the captioning requirements within 3 months from the release date of this Order.

6. This action is taken under delegated authority pursuant to Section 0.283 of the Commission's rules.¹⁵
